THE LATEST IN THE HANDS OF A MOB.

Pike-ton Threatened by Incendiarism. National Associated Press to the Star. CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 5.—Capt. Evans, of the 5th Guards, has just received a telegram from Capt. J. C. Bateman, of the Chapman Guards of Pike-ton, asking him to send him one hundred rounds of ammunition immediately, stating that about one hundred Irish laborers, lately employed on the Valley Railroad, are in town drunk and are mobbing the place. The Nestler House saloon has been gutted and the mob threaten to burn the town. The Sheriff, it is understood, will go to the militia as soon as an order reaches there. Captain Bateman's request is endorsed by the Mayor of Pike-ton.

COUNTERFEIT BANK NOTES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—From an advance copy of Underwood's list of counterfeit National Bank notes, which will be issued on the 6th inst., the following description of the recent fifty-dollar counterfeit is taken. The points of difference are so plainly given that any one by glancing at the note can decide whether it be counterfeit. All counterfeiters on the Third National Bank of Buffalo, New York, bear the signature of L. E. Chittenden as Register; all genuine notes bear either the name of Colby or Allison as Register. The correct charter number is 850; all notes bearing another charter number are counterfeit. All notes on the Central National Bank of New York City, having both the signature of L. E. Chittenden as Register and the words "Printed at the U. S. Treasury Department," in the upper left-hand corner of the note, are counterfeit, as Mr. Chittenden had ceased to be Register long before the notes were printed in the Treasury.

NOMINATIONS.

The Senate Committee having charge of the nomination of Bell, to be Assistant Secretary of the Interior, and Hoyt, to be Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has resolved to report against their confirmation.

The Paris Exposition.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs had before them this morning the communication of Secretary Evarts in regard to participation by the United States Government in the Paris Exposition of 1878. The Secretary recommends an appropriation of $225,000 for the salaries of the Commissioners, &c., and recommends that provision be made for inland transportation.

The Committee have not yet taken any action, but have placed the Secretary's communication in hand of Mr. Hewitt, who offered, a few days ago, a bill providing for the participation of the Government in the Exposition, and proposing an appropriation of $250,000. Mr. Hewitt will amend his bill to conform with Secretary Evarts' recommendations. The Committee will consider the subject from day to day until they have perfected a bill.

Half Mast.

The Government Departments are closed and flags displayed at half mast to-day in respect to the memory of the late Senator Morton.

Trouble with Convicts.

National Associated Press to the Star.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Full particulars of the convict trouble at Mount Serrat are received. A large number of convicts from the penitentiary were employed to work in the mines at that place and were quartered in a large wooden building. One of the men, a negro, became refractory, and expecting punishment asked and was promised aid from the other prisoners to resist it. On Saturday night the Superintendent went up stairs to call him. He threw a coal oil lamp on the stairs which exploded and set the building on fire. The Superintendent escaped through the flames and attracted attention of the prisoners and started by firing a pistol. The prisoners were ordered to jump from their windows. A panic ensued and they jumped one upon another, and nineteen were badly injured. The building was consumed in fifteen minutes, and two bodies were found in the ruins. The wounded were taken to Jeffersonville and lumber sent out to rebuild the stockade. The prisoners are now in the mines where they have been since the fire.

THE LATE SENATOR MORTON.

Lying in State—Preparing for the Funeral.

National Associated Press to the Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 5.—9 A.M.—The remains of Senator Morton reposed in state at the Court-house yesterday, with the Indianapolis Light Infantry as honorary guard. In the main corridor of the Court-house, directly opposite the southern entrance platform, on which the casket rested, is placed a low railing which extends to the stairway in each direction, and in the space between the platform and the stairways are tropical plants and vines, and among them are a few white flowers. The platform is covered with black, and the railing is also draped with black.

On the north wall opposite the southern entrance is a life-size, half-length portrait of the deceased. On each side are battle flags, and all draped black. Fronting the eastern entrance under the grand stairway, and closing up the entrance to the basement, is a life-sized picture of the Senator, draped and surrounded by a wreath of evergreen relieved by a few white flowers. All the doors of the offices opening into the main corridor were draped with mourning, relieved by bunting and battle flags. The balustrades of the upper corridors are also tastefully draped with black. The body is placed on the platform with the head to the west.

An early hour citizens began assembling to obtain a last view of the well known features of the deceased Senator. Lines were formed four abreast and during the greater part of the day a constant stream of people passed through the Court-house. A number of public and private buildings are draped in mourning and a general feeling of solemnity prevails in the community. Notwithstanding a number of excursion trains brought great crowds from the interior towns and the streets were crowded all day long, there was no rudeness or excitement manifested anywhere.

Among the distinguished arrivals already announced are the following: Hon. J. D. Cameron, Pennsylvania; Hon. Thomas F. Barr, Delaware; Jos. E. McDonald, Indiana; Hon. David Davis, Illinois; Hon. Newton Booth, California; Messrs. Jas. J. Christie, Geo. H. Boyd, John H. Smith and Joseph Schiold, Washington, D. C.; Hon. E. C. Smith, Cincinnati; Ex-Mayor Finley, St. Louis; R. A large Cincinnati delegation arrived this morning representing various branches of the municipal government of that city, and various United States officials and Courts. The State officials of the State of Illinois have already arrived.

THE OBSEQUIES.

There was no room for the vast concourse, which remained in front trying to effect an entrance. The services commenced at 1 o'clock with the reading of the Scriptures by Rev. Myron V. Reed, followed by prayer by Dr. Henry Day.

A sermon was delivered by Rev. Jos. Bradford, taking his text from Samuel iv. He reviewed the Senator's life, character and political career, in a lengthy and eloquent sermon.

NEW YORK CITY.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A model of a steamship is on exhibition, which the inventor claims will be propelled by the motion of the sea. The pitching of the vessel is to be utilized by an iron platform, extending from the reel at the stern of the ship, the pressure of the water giving it a vibratory motion, and this, hinged to the whole length of the ship's expected to communicate power to the machinery when the vessel rolls.

The "chaw" was not forthcoming, and James was hit on his back on the sidewalk and his pockets emptied of everything of value, according to gamblers' judgment, including small change. AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Miss Fannie Davenport opens an engagement this evening in her great character of "Mabel Renfrew," in Mr. Daly's beautiful and impressive play, "Pique." She will be supported by the splendid dramatic company from De Bat's Opera-house, St. Louis, led by Mr. J. W. Norton. The immense success of the piece during its previous tour here, and the receipt that has attended it everywhere, is an assurance of big business at the Grand this week. The New York Times said editorially: "No one can witness Mr. Daly's most interesting play of 'Pique'—and every-body ought to see it—without having the most recalled to the painful case of Chasley R. S. Truth is stranger than fiction, and more surprising incidents than those which are depicted in Mr. Daly's play have happened under our very eyes. If anything could deepen the sympathy which is felt for the Ross family, it would be the thoughts suggested by the powerful and deeply impressive performance of Miss Davenport, and there are few who can look on at it without wishing with all their hearts that the relief from a 'sovereign affliction,' which the actress depicts in so affecting a manner, will yet come to the Ross family."

Every night except Friday, and Wednesday and Saturday matinees.
